

BUILD YOUR CAREER IN PUBLIC FINANCE

The Center for State and Local Finance (CSLF) offers a series of executive education courses that focus on the strategic thinking and analytic skills that public finance leaders need to advance.

Courses are taught by world-class faculty from the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, one of the nation's top-ranked programs in public finance and budgeting. Seasoned practitioners also serve as teachers, guest speakers and expert panelists.

The training is grounded in the content knowledge needed to become a Certified Public Finance Officer through the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA), and continuing education credits available from the National Association of State Boards and Accountancy and GFOA.
