COURSE OBJECTIVE

Operational expenses and unexpected legal liabilities can significantly impact the financial health of any organization. This course addresses best practices in contracting and procurement, implementation and management of pension and post-employee benefit costs, and other process and legal strategies around risk management. CPE credits: 24

YOUR BENEFITS

• Our college is ranked No. 5 in public finance and budgeting by U.S. News & World Report.
• World-class faculty from the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies teach courses.
• Leading experts from the public and private sector are guest speakers.
• Small class size and in-depth materials emphasize strategic thinking.
• Participants will leave ready to tackle real-world problems.

PAST INSTRUCTORS AND GUEST SPEAKERS

• Keith Brainard, research director, National Association of State Retirement Administrators
• McCall Ginsberg, deputy general counsel, Georgia Department of Administrative Services
• Harold Weston, associate professor, J. Mack Robinson College of Business

Program Fee

$985 - Public Sector
$1,415 - Regular
Fee includes course content/materials, light breakfast and afternoon snack. Payment is due 10 business days before the start of class.
Center for State and Local Finance (CSLF; Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, GSU) is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org.

Contact Us

For additional questions on this or other courses, contact Ronald Shelby, assistant director of executive education at rshelby3@gsu.edu or 404-413-0327.