2017-2018 SPECIAL SESSIONS

COST ANALYSIS
AUG. 15-16, 2017

Cost analysis is a fundamental tool used in financial management to quantify program costs and adapt budgets to a changing fiscal environment. This class introduces participants to the concepts, data, and skills needed to perform cost analysis. CPE credits: 16

- Instructor: Cynthia Searcy, assistant dean, Andrew Young School
- Program Fee: $665, public sector; $945, general
- Deadline to register is Aug. 1, 2017.

FORECASTING
APRIL 19-20, 2018

Accurate revenue forecasting is the foundation of sound budgeting. This challenging task is an essential tool in governmental planning, and it leads to the smooth operation of any governmental organization. CPE credits: 16

- Instructor: Laura Wheeler, senior research associate, Fiscal Research Center
- Program Fee: $350
- Deadline to register is April 5, 2018.

Learn more and register on our website:
cslf.gsu.edu/training
Center for State and Local Finance (CSLF, Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, GSU) is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org.

Contact Us

For additional questions on this or other courses, contact Ronald Shelby, assistant director of executive education at rshelby3@gsu.edu or 404-413-0327.