COURSE OBJECTIVE

Operational expenses and unexpected legal liabilities can significantly impact the financial health of any organization. This course addresses best practices in contracting and procurement, implementation and management of pension and post-employment benefit costs, and other process and legal strategies to mitigate risk. CPE credits: 24

YOUR BENEFITS

- Our college is ranked No. 8 in public finance and budgeting by U.S. News & World Report.
- World-class faculty from the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies teach courses.
- Leading experts from the public and private sector are guest speakers.
- Small class size and in-depth materials emphasize strategic thinking.
- Participants will leave ready to tackle real-world problems.

PAST INSTRUCTORS

- McCall Ginsberg, deputy general counsel, Georgia Department of Administrative Services
- Leon “Rocky” Joyner, vice president and actuary, Segal Consulting
- Harold Weston, associate professor, J. Mack Robinson College of Business

Program Fee - $500

Fee includes course content/materials, light breakfast and afternoon snack. Payment is due 10 business days before the start of class.

Register on our website by May 1, 2019. Visit us at:
cslf.gsu.edu/training
Contact Us

For questions on this or other courses, contact Ronald Shelby, assistant director of executive education at rshelby3@gsu.edu or 404-413-0327.